The image shows a white sheet of paper with a large, light gray 'A4' label in the center. The paper is framed by a series of colorful dashed lines in red, yellow, blue, purple, green, orange, and teal, which form a border around the edges. The lines are of varying lengths and are arranged in a way that suggests a template for a document or a page layout. The background is a light gray, and the overall design is clean and modern.
