A5

The image shows a template for A5 paper. It features a large, light gray watermark of the text 'A5' in the center. The template is composed of several sets of dashed lines in different colors: red, yellow, blue, purple, green, orange, and teal. These lines form a grid-like structure, with some lines being solid and others dashed. The lines are arranged in a way that suggests a series of nested rectangles or a complex geometric pattern. The background is white, and the overall design is clean and modern.
